Terms and Conditions of ICCO Membership

Please read this document carefully, which sets out the terms and conditions of the agreement between you and the ICCO. If you have any questions, please contact info@iccortho.org.

Registration
We offer online registration through our website www.iccortho.org where you can also find more details. Registration and login credentials for our website are confirmed by an automatically generated email. ICCO membership is valid for one calendar year: January 1 to December 31. New Members can register according to a monthly sliding scale (pro rata) at any time during the year. Applications for membership after July 1 will also include the following calendar year. To guarantee uninterrupted access to the ICCO website and all associated services, membership must be renewed by December 31 each year. Those who selected and purchased a multiple-year membership package don't need to renew their membership until its expiry date.

Any payment information you send via the internet is encrypted using 128-bit Secure Socket Layer (SSL) technology. SSL is currently the preferred method for secure credit card data transfers via the internet.

Membership Renewal
Your membership will automatically renew on the 15th of November every year until you inform us that you no longer wish to be a member of the ICCO, in which case the membership fee for the following year will not become due.

Cancellations
You may notify us of your wish to cancel your membership at any time by contacting us at info@iccortho.org. In order to cancel automatic renewal of your membership, please notify us by 1st November. No refunds will be made on fees that have already been paid. Fees for the year in which the cancellation is submitted must be paid.

Privacy Policy
The ICCO is committed to ensuring that users' personal information is used properly and is stored securely. By becoming a member, you accept the ICCO Privacy Policy.

Terms of Use
By using our Services, you accept the ICCO Terms of Use.

Notification of changes
If the ICCO decides to change its Privacy Policy or Terms of Use, it will post those changes on the ICCO website so that users are always aware of the information collected, how it is used, and under which circumstances, if any, it is disclosed. If at any point it is decided to use personally identifiable information in a manner different from that stated at the time it was collected, users will be notified by email.

Changes to terms and conditions
The ICCO may unilaterally update these terms and conditions for legal or regulatory reasons, or to reflect changes in our services or business practices. We will inform you about any such changes. Any changes will become effective from the date of the information provided to you.
